

An update from Dr. Maddox

Dear patients and friends,

I want to share an important personal update with you. As many of you know, my wife and I grew up in the North Dallas area, where most of our family still lives. Although Austin has been home for over 15 years, we have made the difficult decision to move back to Dallas due to family circumstances.

This was not an easy choice, but we are grateful for the opportunity to be closer to our loved ones and support them during this time.

The hardest part of this transition is stepping away from the relationships we've built here. It has truly been a privilege to care for you and your families over the years at Balcones Family Dental. The trust you've placed in me means more than I can express, and I am deeply grateful for it.

I also want to reassure you that your care will continue without interruption. Our team is working diligently to bring in the right provider, and in the meantime, Dr. Glecos and the rest of our team will be here for you. Dr. Glecos has been an invaluable part of our practice for nearly three years, and I have full confidence in the care he provides. You will continue to be in excellent hands with our team.

Best regards,

Jeremiah 29:11 - "11 For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare[a] and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope."
